

Join us for our events throughout November

4th November - Joy Club hosted by Lissa from 2.30 pm

Bringing enthusiasm, fun and a wide selection of songs to sing along to which will get your feet tapping and your hands in the air! From 'Bring Me Sunshine' to 'YMCA', there's sure to be a catchy tune to sing, clap or dance along to!

5th November - Roy the Historian from 3.00 pm

Sit back and relax as we hear an engaging and informative talk on The Gunpowder Plot of 1605 and the details of the attempt to blow up Parliament and assassinate King James 1 of England.

11th November - Flying Colours Nursery Children from 2.00 pm

Join the children from a local nursery for a fun filled 45 minutes as they showcase some creative arts and crafts with smiles and giggles galore!

12th November - Classical Harpist from 3.00 pm

We welcome Hugo Zuleta as he brings an hour of beautiful harp playing. Hugo will also speak about his varied and interesting worldwide musical career as a classically trained musician and reveal other instruments he also plays.

24th November - Community Police from 3.00 pm

David, our local Community Police Officer will visit for coffee and a chat about his role in responding to and managing unlawful activity as well as answering questions and queries that you may wish to ask about law enforcement in the 21st Century compared to previous decades.

25th November - Forget Me Notes Project from 3.00 pm

Hosted by Alan, and using singing to promote a sense of warmth and community valuing self-expression and achievement.
