Welcome to our Autumn Newsletter

We have been blessed with a dry and warm summer and now are seeing the leaves changing and falling from the trees.

We have had a kind donation of hand crocheted blankets for the residents and have topped up our blanket boxes ready to keep cosy.

Our Wow refurbishment is coming along well and should be finished mid-December. We are looking forward to re-opening our residential unit and showing off all the hard work the team have completed.

The Lodge dining room and kitchen servery is about to begin work. The bathrooms and wet rooms are well underway and starting to look amazing.

As always, we thank you for bearing with us while we complete these works and we know it will all be worth it.

Keep wrapped up warm,

Emma Smith

MAGIC TABLE

We received our new interactive table this month. We are thrilled to have this piece of equipment which can move easily around the home from each unit, and also into bedrooms too.

There are a number of games and interactive activities which can help entertain and stimulate all residents.

Initial experiences are looking good with much enjoyment had by all.

SPOTLIGHT ON... Autumn activities

Throughout autumn we have had a wide variety of themed activities that our residents have really enjoyed, these have included making autumn wreaths from pom poms and pine cones, carving pumpkins, Halloween disco, Guy Fawkes making, baking and many special trips out for people.

As we move into the winter time our activities will reflect this and we have already started on the Christmas theme, keep an eye on Facebook to see some of the very special activities that will be happening.

Our best story this month

We had a really special day with the wonderful Stan and his work colleagues from Greyleys Jersey Dairy. Stan worked at the dairy for many years and we took him and one of his peers who also used to work in a dairy to visit the cows and their very cute calves, we were also treated to homemade cake with a proper cup of tea in a mug. This was such an amazing and emotional day made all the more special by Stan's wonderful work colleagues who made us feel so welcome.

Bonfire Night

Our residents (and staff team) had a fabulous evening on bonfire night, not only was tea bonfire night themed, we also had a firework display and sparklers. It really was a magical evening and more pictures are available on our Facebook page.
